WORKHOUSE ART CENTER TOUR AND LUNCHEON s/c

Lorton, VA

Put on your “artistic hat” as you plan to join us on a very colorful and interactive tour of the Workhouse Art Center. This site used to be a former prison, but the gorgeous brick archways and open grass fields are now home to hundreds of artists, movement, song and culinary experts. A very exciting and informative day has been specially coordinated just for us including: two docent led tours, a visit to the movement studio and a delicious on-site luncheon in the gallery space. There will be time to talk with artists in their studios specializing in such fields as pottery, glass, fiber, painting, printmaking. You will also be able to visit the gift museum to purchase books, arts supplies or smaller pieces of art for gift giving.

Space is limited to the first 24 enrollees. This trip includes tour, luncheon, and transportation.
